

Real Estate Development Custom Residential Builder

PRESS RELEASE.

Regent Homes, Inc., custom builder and designer, recently opened their full service model home center with three decorated models. The models are located in Greentown, Pennsylvania on Route 390, 6 miles south of Rte 84, through the fabulous Pennsylvania Promise Land State Park.

All the Regent Homes resemble the American traditional neighborhood home with all the new technology for better living. They range from $198,000 to $279,000, the best possible value in the tri-state area.

All the homes include high efficiency furnaces; Superior Walls insulated foundations, above code structure and much more. Over a hundred lots available at Skyview Lake or we will build on your property. Eighty floor plans for single or multi family homes. Building homes in the tri-state area for over forty years.

Call Ken Kaye at 866-791-9972 for an appointment and personal consultation.
